Why do we pledge?

Each of us is blessed by God with a given allocation of time, of talent, and of treasure.

Jesus reminds us that wherever we decide to spend our treasure, our heart will follow our spending.

God wants you to draw near to Him in your heart.

By making a financial pledge, you devote a portion of your financial treasure to God's work through First Presbyterian Church. Where your money goes, your heart will follow — and likely your time and talent as well.

Through your financial pledge, you draw your heart into the work of God's people, His church in this time and place.

So... how do I pledge?

Prayerfully consider how God has poured out blessings on your heart.

Dedicate your heart to God through your pledge.

- Start where you are today.
- Increase your pledge by 1% of your gross income.
- Consider what other gifts God is calling you to lay at His feet.
- Fill out a pledge card. Return it during worship, to the office, by mail or to any church officer.

Fulfill your pledge through dependence on the grace of God.

Let your heart follow your treasure and bring you closer to your Lord.

Where does my $100 go?
